Tolent Health

Just what the doctor ordered

Our experience in the provision of high quality buildings for the health service ranges from Health and Primary Care Centres to complete hospitals, each combining a distinctive external appearance with a carefully designed interior for maximum working efficiency and patient comfort.

Tolent Construction Limited provides the broad base of specialist expertise necessary to deliver complete health sector projects.

Projects range from modest values to multi million pound undertakings, either to the client's design and specification or on a design and build basis.
