

Summary Statement

At Tolent, we believe that Modern Slavery in all of its forms constitutes an abhorrent abuse of human rights.

We acknowledge that business has a significant role to play in combating modern slavery, both domestically and internationally.

Tolent is a construction business undertaking building and civil engineering contracts within the construction sector.

We are part of the Tolent Group and our ultimate parent company is Tolent Plc. Tolent is committed to maintaining a culture where slavery, servitude, compulsory labour or human trafficking is quite simply, unacceptable, we are committed to improving our practises to combat Slavery & Human Trafficking.

Every member of staff has a role to play in combating this crime, by remaining alert to the risk of slavery, however small it may be, within our business and within our supply chain. This statement is issued pursuant to section 54 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015.

Tolent has grown into a national company and market leader across a range of construction sectors, including residential; commercial; industrial; retail; education; healthcare and leisure. We also operate a number of specialist divisions including a national asbestos removal and environmental department.

Tolent operates throughout the north east, central and southern regions with national suppliers procuring goods and services across an international supply chain.

Our ability to achieve sustainable, profitable growth across our business demonstrates our capability to manage a wide range of construction projects.

Tolent operates within Great Britain, with national suppliers procuring goods and services across an international supply chain.
